

Evelyn Ulex Pianist

Biography

“Ulex played Liszt's Piano Concerto No.2, her harp-like arpeggios sweeping across the keyboard drew in the audience from the start. Her charisma simply was unstoppable.”

Classical New Jersey Society Journal

Pianist Evelyn Ulex was born and raised in Berlin, Germany.

At the age of ten, she won the national “Festival of Young Talent” in Dresden, later taking top awards in the J.S.Bach competition in Leipzig, Germany. She holds degrees from Berlin’s University of the Arts as well as the acclaimed Folkwang Hochschule in Essen, Germany where she did her Concert Examen studies in the Master class of Prof. Boris Bloch.

Ms. Ulex, a finalist for the Frienna Awerbuch International Piano Competition in New York City, is an established pianist in both the United States and Europe. She performs worldwide as soloist, chamber musician and with orchestras.

She has appeared at New York City’s Carnegie Hall, the Library for the Performing Arts, Symphonie Space, 92nd St. Y, Steinway Hall, Pianofest in the Hamptons, Summer Festival at Rutgers’ University, Imani Winds Festival at Juilliard School in nyc as well as Berlin’s Konzerthaus, Philharmonie, the German Embassy in Washington, D.C., and various German consulates around the globe.

Of particular note are Ulex’s special projects, such as “200 Years of Brazilian classical Songs” with soprano Katia Guedes and “Sight & Sound,” a live concert featuring projections of paintings by Berlin artist Ade Frey. She has also performed the work “Poetry & piano/artists in the move” alongside prominent Berlin actor Hartmut Becker.

Ulex is a founding member of the TransAtlantic Ensemble, where she works with Grammy-nominated clarinetist Mariam Adam (Imani Winds). Their just new released CD “Crossing America” presents new works by composers Paquito D’Rivera, Miguel del Aguila, Jeff Scott, Valerie Coleman that draw from classical and jazz traditions.

Ms. Ulex was also featured on Berlin Radio’s “Artist Portraits” series and can be heard on E1 Entertainment (Koch classics) and Eroica.

She is a Steinway artist who works out of New York City and Berlin.

Pictures

Photo: Neda Navaee

Photo: Neda Navaee