

Zé Luis Oliveira, Saxophone

Zé Luis is a 7 time Grammy award nominee, composer, arranger, producer and multi-instrumentalist featured on hundreds of recordings with a career of over 40 years in Brazil and the United States. He became famous in the 1980s performing and recording with Caetano Veloso, Gilberto Gil, Gal Costa and Cazuza among others.

As a film composer, arranger and music producer he is known for his work on the films Rio (2011), Ghost of Girlfriends Past (2009) and Monster-in-Law (2005). As recording artist he has released the self-title Zé Luis and two albums of his original compositions, Guarani Banana and Caiapó.

He founded The Atelier Music Studio where he has been composing, producing and recording music for film/tv soundtracks, albums and converging media.

For more information visit zeluis.com